

Donald Eugene "Domino" Page

February 19, 1940 - November 8, 2021

Donald Eugene Page, known as Domino by family and friends, was born Monday, February 19, 1940, in Newport (Perry County), PA, son of the late George Matthews and the late Helen M. Freet.

A product of the Newport School District, Donald served in and retired from the United States Army. He was known by many in the community as the local mechanic. His passion for cars was taught to all his sons with the vision they would always be able to provide for themselves and their families.

Leisurely, he loved to play the lottery and hang out with his buddies at the Hamilton Grill where everyone loved him and enjoyed his company.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Monday, November 8, 2021, at eighty-one years of age, Donald departed this life joining in eternal life his parents, George Matthews and Helen M. Freet; his wife, Yvonne "Bonnie" Page; daughter, Robyn Scott; son, Thurston Wells Sr.; brother, Russell Freet; and sisters, Hazel L. Swartz and Rose Freet.

Duncan, Charles Freet; as well as other family members and friends.

“ Family comforting prayers & for the strength & courage to carry on. I've known "Domino" for many years. Met when I was 15 when he would visit family in North Carolina. After I relocated to PA he became a familiar face.

Gave friendly advice on fixing cars & when he was able gave a helping hand to folks driving by his house who were having car troubles.

Had good conversations sitting outside his house around the barrel. He would light a fire in it to smoke out mosquitos in summer & for warmth in the winter or to burn trash in it trying to keep the area clean. Before the day was out would invite you out to a restaurant for a meal. Would come to the house to check on me if he hadn't seen me for a few days. Missing my friend.

God's blessings to you all.

“ So sadden to hear of Uncle Domino passing. He was not A Blood Uncle but growing up he was every bit of the Word. He and My father were tight as Brothers! Loved him and Always will. Later on in life he did become blood through his great granddaughter " Bookie" who is also my Dads only sister Arlene Great Granddaughter as well. My condolences to Family. Rest Easy Uncle D.
