

Donna Marie Parker

November 1, 1959 - June 1, 2023

Donna Marie Parker was born Sunday, November 1, 1959, in Providence, Rhode Island, to Della and David Parker.

A woman of many roles, Donna was a teacher, caregiver, worked in hospitality and, most importantly, in ministry. Donna took pride in serving the Lord which was evidenced in her many certificates and licenses. She was recently affirmed as a Prophetess at her home church, In His Presence Ministries. Donna enjoyed spending free time doing arts and crafts. Her favorite thing to make was her famous decorative shoes. She appreciated nature, sightseeing, and celebrating holidays. Those who knew her well knew she loved butterflies, blues and everything shoes.

At her home in Harrisburg, PA, on Thursday, June 1, 2023, at the blessed age of sixty-three, Donna was called home to be with the Lord. She was preceded in death by her father, David Parker, and her brother, Darryl Parker.

Donna is survived by her mother, Della Parker; two sons, Dawaun Parker and Dremajd Pina; one daughter, Dayasha Pina; son-in-law, Keyattha Duncan; four grandchildren, Makhi Dunn, Keyaila Duncan, Niaikho Pina and Naiomi Pina; eight siblings and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Profoundly impacting the lives of many, she will be wholeheartedly cherished and missed.

“ One of my many memories of my Aunt Donna was her love of all holidays. She would decorate the ENTIRE house with whatever holiday it was. She went all out. I went to her one Christmas as a child and it was the most beautiful decorations i've ever seen. Til this day she is the reason I go all out on decorating for the holidays. She will never be forgotten. She is always l'm my heart. May you rest in peace auntie! 🙏💙

“ Donna was a blessing in my life! I met her when I was a volunteer at the YWCA Greater Harrisburg. She had a beautiful spirit and radiated light and love. Gone too soon but I know she is wearing crowns in heaven. My prayers are with the family she left behind. God bless.
