

Mrs. Dorothy C. Beavers Felton

January 3, 1924 - February 23, 2013

Dorothy V. Beavers Felton

Mrs. Dorothy V. Beavers Felton, 89, of Harrisburg, transitioned into eternal life on February 23, 2013, while surrounded by her loving family. She was born January 3, 1924, in Harrisburg, daughter of the late Leonard Beavers and Lillie Belle Decatur Beavers.

Educated in the parochial schools of Washington, DC, she graduated as valedictorian from St. Aloysius High School. Her career path included employment as a telephone operator with the Bell Telephone Company of New York, Commonwealth of PA, Dept. of Education (retired), former owner of Maple Grove Bar and Restaurant, Founder and President of Consumer Credit Counseling Service, a non-profit organization, and manager at the Harrisburg Housing Authority (retired).

An avid reader who enjoyed crossword puzzles, Mrs. Felton was actively involved in the GOP political movement during Senator M. Harvey Taylor's tenure.

The widow of Theodore "Ted" Felton, she leaves to emulate and honor her legacy: devoted daughter, Beverly Chase-Robinson (Deacon LeRoy Robinson); granddaughters, Maria Gaskin, Christina Chase-Pettis (Sterl), all of Harrisburg, and Lisa Chase-Craig (Jeffrey) of Alexandria, VA; her great grandchildren, Miguel Johnson, Shilisa Cooper (Brad), Seth Johnson, Rondell Johnson and Alexis Pettis, all of Harrisburg, and Camryn Craig of Alexandria; her great great grandchildren, Dyamon Johnson and Miguel Johnson Jr., both of Harrisburg; and a host of extended family.

Graveside Service will be held at 11 a.m., Friday, March 15th, at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. The family thanks everyone for the many expressions of sympathy and Hospice of Central PA and The Jewish Home of Greater Harrisburg for their compassionate care. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The Jewish Home of Greater Harrisburg, 4000 Linglestown Road, Harrisburg, PA 17112.
