The Obituary

Dorothy Carr

“Yes,” sometimes your way seemed dreary and you were sinking in despair. But you knew to call upon JESUS, you knew he answers prayer. Now your troubles are over, you’ve reached the other shore; now rest your soul with JESUS in that mansion forevermore.

Dorothy was born Saturday, May 16, 1925, in Columbia, Pennsylvania, daughter of Samuel Watson and Elizabeth Spencer.

As a confession of her faith, she was united in Christian fellowship with Faith Temple Church of God in Christ. Strong-willed and hardworking, Dorothy retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg State Hospital and Pennsylvania Blue Shield. She was very involved fraternally and socially in the community to include her current affiliation with Unity Temple, #61, and her former affiliation with Cyrenus Temple, as well as the Keystone Council, PA State Association, Bertha Allen PGDR Council, National PGDR Council and the American Women’s Business Association, Blue Mountain Chapter. However, she still found time to enjoy bingo, bowling, dancing, traveling and, especially, just being social spending time with her family and friends. An advocate for youth, Dorothy encouraged, inspired and loved participating with the youth.

On Thursday, November 13, 2014, at eighty-nine years of age, while at the Colonial Park Care Center, Harrisburg, PA, God in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love called Dorothy into eternal life joining her parents, Samuel Watson and Elizabeth Spencer; husband, Willie J. Carr; and sisters, Gloria Preston and Ada Bones; and brother Chris.

Dorothy leaves to honor her legacy while cherishing many special memories one son, Barry Cannon; sisters, Elva Webb and Juanita Sudberry; nephews, Gregory, Terrance, Kevin, Randy and Michael Webb, Terry Sloane, Lester J. III and Larry Preston and Leon Denmark; nieces, Angela Hickerson, Kay Carelock, Dottie and Ida; special friend, Dollie Wright; six stepchildren; other relatives and friends.

Submitted in Love and Sorrow, The Family

Her life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Monday, November 24th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. and Elk Service convening at 11:45 a.m. Interment will be at Blue Ridge Memorial Gardens.

“ I was saddened to learn of my step-mother, Ms. Dot's passing...You have been apart of my life for the last 30 years and I will always cherish our times together: the car rides when I was a young girl, you and my Dad coming to visit me @ college, my visits with you @ Colonial Park Care until my health started failing me and our last phone conversation a little while ago...
