

Earl Lester Emerson

October 6, 1956 - April 13, 2026

Earl Lester Emerson, son of the late Lela Mae (Glasper) Emerson and the late Elder Lattie Moore Emerson Sr., was born on October 6, 1956, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Earl received his formal education in the Harrisburg School District and graduated from the former William Penn High School.

During his working years, he worked for various companies. He was determined to work hard for what he needed in life and carried that mindset throughout his years.

Earl was a quiet and humble brother. In his early adulthood, he was raised in a home grounded in faith by his parents. He was a member of Faith Chapel Church of God in Christ, 1212 Edgemont Road in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Earl enjoyed traveling and attending various events. He liked watching movies of his choice, listening to music, attending family reunions, and spending time with friends. He also enjoyed riding his bicycle to places he liked to go on his own. He was known as a kind and caring brother. His brother, Freddie Emerson, served as his caregiver and took great care of him over many years.

On Monday, April 13, 2026, at the age of sixty-nine, Earl peacefully transitioned into glory in the peace and love of his home in Hall Manor. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Willie Emerson, and his sisters, Ruth Nell Emerson, Ruth Mae Jackson, and Climmieteen Emerson.

Loving memories will be cherished by his brothers, Lattie Moore Emerson Jr., Freddie Emerson, and Clifton Emerson; his sisters, Kathleen Emerson, Pearl Emerson, Betty (Emerson) Banks, and Beverly Emerson; along with a host of other relatives, extended family members, and friends.

“ Earl, my cousin, had one of the most greatest strengths of quietness that I have ever witnessed! I believe he demonstated to others, as a man who was peaceful and lived a comfortably blessed life. God bless the family.

Words don't always come easy when we lose a family member who has passed on. Rest in peace cousin Earl Lester. My sincere condolences to your family and friends. I didn't know you well but I knew my Uncle Lattimore and Aunt Mae, your mother and father well when I lived in Harrisburg. They were both very good people and loved very much by all who knew them. I know that you were of good character coming from your loving family. My pray for family and friends is that God will comfort and protect them at this difficult time.

Rest in Peace

Your cousin Christine Lewis
