

Earnest E. Shaw

April 27, 1934 - June 24, 2021

Earnest E. Shaw, son of the late Bertha Shaw-Harris and Daniel Turner, was born Friday, April 27, 1934, in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

Earnest was educated through the Winnsboro Public School System. He was employed within the transportation industry as a truck driver driving the roads for fifty-three years visiting multiple places and meeting many people.

Following his retirement, he owned and operated his landscaping business for twenty years. In addition to landscaping, Earnest also enjoyed the simple life of fishing, gardening, visiting family and holding a good conversation. He was a “Jack-of-all-Trades” talented handyman who could fix anything and everything.

After fighting a good fight, Earnest peacefully transitioned home on Thursday, June 24, 2021, while in the comfort of his home. Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by his brothers, Samuel Shaw and Joseph Fuller.

Earnest leaves to cherish precious memories his sister, Jacqueline Shaw; his loving sons, Earnest Shaw Jr. and Paul Lester; two grandchildren, Joshlyn Poole and Carrie Casson (Andres Casson); two great-grandchildren, Dorian Casson and Ethan Casson; a nephew, Detrus “Chink” Williams; as well as a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Condolence to Paul and the Shaw family. I will miss my friend Ernest. We have been friends so long that I can't remember when we weren't. I will definitely miss his stop-in visits when he would be cruising through South Carolina. He was like a brother to me and will be missed. Love you Ernest ... rest now. I'll see you later.
