

Edwin Blaine "Lammie" Jackson Sr.

April 20, 1952 - July 18, 2023

Edwin Blaine Jackson Sr., affectionately called "Lammie," was born Sunday, April 20, 1952, in Harrisburg, PA, son of the late Leroy Sr. and Betty Jackson.

Lammie graduated from William Penn Vo-Tech High School, and in 1970, he joined the United States Marine Corps where he served his country proudly. Lammie worked for over fifty years before retiring from Clearwater Service as an Expert Window Technician.

Among Lammie's favorite pastimes were watching sports, especially his Dallas Cowboys, and cooking on the grill adding his special seasonings which made him the "grill master." Lammie had an infectious smile making you laugh or smile when around him even though you didn't feel like it. He smiled through his pain just to make others happy. Lammie would often say, "Don't let your fear rob you of a place that faith has brought you to; everything you need to be great is already inside you."

On Tuesday, July 18, 2023, at seventy-one years of age, Edwin Blaine Jackson Sr. transitioned from this life into eternal life joining his parents; son, Ronald Roy; daughter, Tamiquita Jackson; brothers, Kenneth and Robert Jackson; and sister, Catherine Jackson.

Lammie leaves loving memories and his love to his wife, Delores Bradley

Jackson; sons, Edwin Jackson II (Patricia), Jason Simmons, Kye Mauri Bradley-Miller, all of Harrisburg, PA, and Aundre Pharris of Dallas, TX; his daughters, Kheala, Kenya and Alexandria Jackson, Cecelia Pharris and Unique Bradley Brown; brothers, Stewart, Leroy and Preston Jackson; sisters, Theresa Smith and Barbara Jackson, all of Harrisburg; as well as a host of other family members and friends.

Edwin Blaine Jackson Sr. has left his mark on the world, but through his nineteen grandchildren and twenty-one great-grandchildren, his legacy will continue to live on.
