

Eileen Priscilla Richardson-Norman

May 4, 1973 - December 31, 2025

Eileen Priscilla Richardson Norman was born on May 4, 1973, in Tulare, California, to Elvira Elisa Cotharn and Rev. James F. Richardson.

Eileen earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from California State University, Fresno, where she formed lifelong bonds, including a close relationship with Francine and Henry Oputa, who became trusted mentors and extended family. In 1999, she married her college sweetheart and later made Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, her home, where she built a life rooted in faith, community, and love.

As the middle child of seven siblings, she showed creativity, determination, and a deep love for family from an early age. She cherished her childhood, especially time spent with siblings and cousins at the beach and among the peach orchards of Orange County and Tulare.

A devoted mother of four and the mother of one angel baby, Elizabeth, Eileen's home was filled with warmth, laughter, and open doors. She found a spiritual home at Greater Zion Missionary Baptist Church and cherished friendships with Sharia and William Benn, who later became the godparents of her children.

Eileen possessed a strong entrepreneurial spirit. She excelled with Mary Kay, rising to the level of director and mentoring her own team. She later founded a property inspection and maintenance company, building it with care, integrity, and dedication. As a realtor and property owner, she restored six properties, transforming them into warm, livable homes for families. She found joy in bringing life back to houses and turning them into places of comfort and hope.

Eileen's life was marked by compassion, generosity, and unwavering faith. She was known for her favorite saying, "I love you more, God loves you most," a reflection of the love she freely gave to others.

On Wednesday, December 31, 2025, Eileen peacefully transitioned from time to eternity at the age of fifty-two.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children Na'im Grant Rogers, Cloria Jeané Norman, Najuma Symone Norman, and Charles Norman III; her grandchild, Ty'Leah Shanise Scott Rogers; and countless family members and friends whose lives were touched by her love.

“ My condolences to Eileen children, family and friends. Keeping everyone in my prayers 🙏

I met Eileen at Greater Zion Missionary Church. She was beautiful inside and out. She was multi talented. God blessed her with so many gifts. When I was going through my cancer treatment and divorce; Eileen was one of my encourager, supporters and prayer 🙏 warriors. She was so kind. Last time I saw her we were talking about how fast our children were growing up. We would say that we were going to get together to catch up. I told her that she was my adopted sister. 💕 She showed one of the homes that she renovated. She was so excited to show the one house. It was fabulous! ❤️

Rest In Heavenly Peace beautiful angel. You are loved 😊 and will be missed by many. 🙏🥹 “ Eilleen and I met through my cousin. We found out quickly what was sought after was not the route God had planned. We greeted one another, we shared with one another and it clicked. God orchestrated a Divine Timing to support through listening to one another. Our last text I expressed when I was able to help with something. Eilleen said my prayers were worth more than my help that I desired. In the 3yrs I was blessed to get to know in a short far and few in between times absolutely most purest, genuine, radiant soul. For that God I will forever be GRATEFUL AND THANKFUL for meeting Eillen Priscilla Richardson-Norman. Unto my cousin Justin Reeves you were apart of this great Divine Time what an Amazing appointment. Unto Eillen's family: May God Encamp His Comfort Angels Around The Family and Friends.
