

Eleanor Sullivan Bailey

July 9, 1933 - January 27, 2012

Eleanor Sullivan Bailey, daughter of the late Benjamin Sullivan and the late Lucinda Morgan Sullivan, was born Sunday, July 9, 1933, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

She was a graduate of Steelton High School and retired as a Lithographer from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. At a young age, Eleanor was united in Christian fellowship with The First Baptist Church of Steelton where she enjoyed singing on the choir. On December 5, 1953, Eleanor united in holy matrimony with Robert O. Bailey. Devoted to her family, her special interests included cooking, flowers and crafts.

At her Lincoln Street home in Steelton, Pennsylvania, on Friday, January 27, 2012, while encircled by the devoted and loving presence of her family, Eleanor peacefully transitioned from this life to eternal life.

Along with her parents, Eleanor was also predeceased by her sister, Anna Mable Brown; a son, Robert Keith Bailey; and one daughter, Sabrina Allen.

She leaves to cherish many special memories: one daughter, Edrina Whittaker; grandsons, Michael and Lavon Whittaker and Gabriel Allen, all of Steelton; two great grandchildren, Lavon Whittaker and Amaya Whittaker; a devoted sister-in-law, Emma Hughes; other relatives and friends.

It's difficult when someone we loved cannot be here,
But memories that are made and shared will keep our loved one near.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
