

Mrs. Eleanor A. Wallace Davenport

May 11, 1938 - October 3, 2018

Eleanor A. Wallace Davenport, daughter of the late Reverend J. C. Wallace and the late Anna Mae Curbeam Wallace, was born Wednesday, May 11, 1938, at her home in Steelton, Pennsylvania.

Eleanor was formerly employed by the former Royal Fame Laundromat and enjoyed reading and putting together puzzles.

At eighty years of age, while at the Colonial Park Care Center, Harrisburg, on Wednesday, October 3, 2018, God in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Eleanor home joining in eternal life her parents, her husband, Robert Davenport Jr., and her siblings, Joscephus Wallace Jr., Sarah Williams, James R. Wallace, Emma Hadley and other loved ones.

Eleanor leaves to lovingly cherish and honor her life two sisters, Annabelle Williams of Los Angeles, California, and Janie M. Finley of Steelton, Pennsylvania, devoted nieces and nephews as well as a host of cousins and other relatives.

Eleanor's memory will forever be etched in our minds and cherished in our hearts! Lovingly Submitted by Eleanor's Family

“ You can now Rest In Peace Aunt Eleanor. One of my favorite memories of you were you watching us the week my parents went away. You were always so nice and I felt like I was somewhat on a vacation too lol 😂 (from my parents). I Love you and will see you again 💜

My dear Aunt Eleanor, no words can express how much you meant to me. I will always treasure the memories of you forever in my Heart. I will truly miss your phone calls and your stories from when we your nieces and nephews were little kids, you would have me cracking up, although you didn't have children of your own, we were like yours, you knew everyone's Birthday and always asked about each and everyone of us. Take your wings and rest on in Paradise my Beloved Aunt!
