

Elva Webb

December 4, 1930 - July 14, 2024

Elva Webb, a resident of Harrisburg, PA, was born Thursday, December 4, 1930, in Columbia, PA, to Samuel Watson and Freda McGlauglin. She graduated from Columbia High School in Lancaster, PA, and then moved to York, PA, where she met, dated and eventually married her husband, John Webb.

Elva loved and enjoyed her career in nursing at the Harrisburg State Hospital, Dauphin County Nursing Home and Keystone Disabilities for many years until finally retiring. Elva was a very loving, caring and nurturing soul who loved the Lord and was steadfast in her faith. She believed in extending a helping hand to those in need which included a couple of foster children who she loved and adored.

Mrs. Elva Webb peacefully transitioned from this life into life eternal on Sunday, July 14, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John W. Webb; sons, Gregory, John T. and Wayne Webb; grandson, Bennett Webb; and sisters, Asa Bones, Dorothy Carr and Gloria Preston.

She leaves to cherish her memory five sons, Barry, Terrance, Kevin, Randy and Michael Webb; sixteen grandchildren, thirty-three great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren; her goddaughter, Rebecca Moore who she often referred to as the daughter she never had; along with a host of nieces, nephews and friends who she loved and cherished including her Church Family at Bethel A.M.E. where she attended and was always so happy and excited to see her loving niece, Kay Carelock.
