

Ms. Erika C. Lawrence

November 17, 1974 - July 10, 2014

Erika Christine Lawrence

Erika Christine Lawrence was born Sunday, November 17, 1974, in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, to parents, Donald E. Lawrence Sr. and Christine McNeil Lawrence.

Erika was a very intelligent individual; this was reflected through her thirst for learning and her ambition to further her education. Erika attended Central Penn College and received a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Human Resources (Magna Cum Laude). Most recently, she received her Master of Science Degree in Library Science from Clarion State University in December, 2013. Erika loved real estate and had plans to pursue her Doctorate.

Erika was known for her professionalism, but more affectionately by family and friends as a genuine, caring and sweet-natured person. Erika had a beautiful personality, a big smile and a hearty laugh. She was very close with her family and loved her pets.

On Thursday, July 10, 2014, Erika fell asleep in death. She is survived by her mother, Christine McNeil Lawrence; two brothers, Donald E. Lawrence Jr. and Ryan P. Lawrence; one sister, Lauren R. Lawrence; nephews, Ryan P. Lawrence Jr. and Braylen Lawrence, all of Harrisburg, PA; an aunt, Jacqueline Lawrence of Laurel, MD; her grandmother, Essie Hendricks of Philadelphia, PA; as well as a host of aunts, uncles and other relatives who contributed to Erika's life journey.

Erika was preceded in death by her father, Donald E. Lawrence Sr. whom she loved very much.

Erika will be deeply missed!

Lovingly Submitted by Her Family

“ Please accept my condolences to the family of Erika Lawrence. Sorry for your loss. The true god of the Bible has promise that he will put an end to all sickness and Death forever. (Isaiah 25:8). Yes a real hope of being united with your loved one again, this happy reunion will take place right here on earth. (Psalms37:11&29) I pray for that kingdom to come very soon. I hope the family draw some comfort from these scriptures. You can read or listen to these scriptures online at www.jw.org
