

Ernest E. Crawford

March 17, 1931 - January 24, 2012

Ernest, son of the late Roosevelt Crawford Sr. and the late Jessie Mae Dillard Thompson, was born in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on March 17, 1931.

In Harrisburg, on Thursday, January 24, 2013, in his eighty-first year, while surrounded by his family at the Harrisburg Hospital, Ernest completed his earthly journey peacefully passing from the labors of this life to the reward of Life Eternal.

Ernest received his formal education in the public schools of Harrisburg and served honorably in the United States Army during the Korean War. He retired from the Polyclinic Hospital and was a member of American Legion, Post 733, Harrisburg. Ernest's avenues of relaxation were fishing, watching western movies, cooking and having friends over.

In addition to his parents, Ernest was predeceased by three sisters, Shirley Mae Crawford, Helen Crawford, Mildred Stern; and one brother, Melvin Thompson Sr. His memory will be cherished by his six children, Ernie Brown and Jamal Brown, both of Harrisburg, Rochelle Franklin of Bealeton, Virginia, Claudette Crawford and Vicki Pitts, both of Harrisburg; his five brothers, Roosevelt Crawford and James Crawford, both of Harrisburg, William Thompson of Israel, Pastor John Thompson of Wichita, Kansas and Frisby Thompson Jr. of Texas; three sisters, Mary Braxton, Dorothy Dykes and Geraldine Evans, all of Harrisburg; twenty-one grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

We are blessed to have shared a portion of Ernest's Life Journey!

Cemetery Details

Indiantown Gap National

Indiantown Gap Road
Anville, PA 17003