“ Not many people knew this but me and Earnest were lovers. I would always cherish the times that we would get to sneak away and get busy. He was an incredible man and could take it pretty rough.

“ Ernest and I grew up in GZBC. We had so much fun in school we belong to the choir he love to sing. The last time I saw him was at the dentist and we was talking about when we went to the 8th grade dance he had this big afro. Your dad was a gentleman always. He was my friend. We lost touch for years until that day. It was good seeing him. I send you my condolences and prayers
