The Obituary

“Reflecting Upon Eugene’s Life”

Eugene Humphrey, son of the late Daniel and Willa Mae Humphrey, was born Tuesday, August 28, 1928, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

In his eighty-second year, on Sunday, March 27, 2011, at his Harrisburg home, he was called by the Lord and transcended safely into His Arms.

Eugene lived a good Christian life. He spent his time working hard and providing for his family.

He was a devoted volunteer at the North 17th Street Church of God Food Bank.

Preceding him in death was his wife, Francis Humphrey.

He is loved and remembered by his daughter, Shirlene Humphrey; his two grandsons, Ron and Ian Humphrey; six lovely great grandchildren; his brother, Butch Humphrey; his sister, Edna Humphrey; as well as other loving family members and friends.
