መንግስተ ሰማይ የዋርሶ

Mr. Fesehazion was born on February 27, 1946 in Tegeren Woreda Shewate, Deki Zereisenai, Awradga Akele-Guzai, Eritrea to his late father Sergeant G/Eyesus Asghedom Ghebre and his lovely mother Letekidan Abraha Foto. When he reached of age, he attended his primary and middle school education in Balatan Geta-Lorenzo Tazaz, Adikeih. He studied secondary school in Dekemihare Secondary School, in the city of Dekemhare, Awradga, Akele-Guzai.

After completing high school, the brave Fesehazion was working with different corporations at the Port of Assab and Port of Massawa as an accountant. As a result of his love for his country, the brave Fesehazion, in 1976 joined the Eritrean Liberation Front for the struggle to liberate Eritrea. Inside E.L.F, he served his country and his people in the department of health, and department of commerce in the north of Denkel.

During the unfortunate internal clashes between ELF and EPLF, like many of his comrades he was forced to leave Eritrea and headed to South Sudan in the city of Juba. After his brief stay in Kenya, in early 1989, Mr. Fesehazion arrived in Connecticut, USA. Due to his experience, he worked for All First Bank for many years.

Mr. Fesehazion was survived by his four lovely children Gelila, Helen, Azhari, and Noah. He is also blessed with four grandchildren. Being the oldest of his family, he has eight siblings, Sium, Letemichael, Tesfom, Trhas, Birhan, Ghenet, Almaz, and the late Alemseged.

After a long battle and getting treatments at Central DC Hospital, on March 5, 2021, Mr. Fesehazion passed away peacefully. Throughout his life, he made immeasurable contributions and changed the lives of countless people in various ways.

May he Rest In Peace.
