

Flora Rebecca Jackson

September 27, 1944 - September 3, 2025

Flora Rebecca Jackson, affectionately known as “Mother,” daughter of the late Robert Chase and Lucile Jackson, was born on Wednesday, September 27, 1944, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Flora graduated from William Penn High School and went on to earn an Associate’s Degree in Social Science from Harrisburg Area Community College. She furthered her studies and became a Certified Medium through Pratt Institute. A woman of many gifts, talents, and passions, she carried her creativity and faith into every aspect of her life.

Professionally, Flora dedicated more than twenty-three years as a Social Worker with Dauphin County Children and Youth Services, a role she embraced with compassion, patience, and wisdom.

After relocating to North Carolina, Flora became a devoted member of Fellowship of Christ in Rocky Mount, North Carolina, where she faithfully served as a Sunday School teacher for the youth. She poured her heart into guiding young people in their walk with God, and her spiritual teachings and mentorship touched the souls of many. Her commitment to Christ was not only spoken, but lived out daily in the way she loved, encouraged, and inspired others.

Flora was also a true artist. Blessed with many talents, her passion for painting was evident in the works she created, each piece capturing beauty, meaning, and story in every brushstroke. She was also a gifted writer, whose short stories, poems, and inspirational readings resonated deeply with those who heard or read them. Through her art, her words, and her spirit, Flora shared pieces of herself that will endure far beyond her years.

On Wednesday, September 3, 2025, while in Charlotte, North Carolina, Flora peacefully departed this life at the age of eighty. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Thomas MacIntosh, and her daughter, Kim Jackson.

Flora leaves behind a lasting legacy of love, faith, and creativity. Cherishing her memory are her children: Charles Creamer, Bobbi Creamer, Janine Mohammed, and Auckland Jackson Jr.; eleven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; as well as a host of relatives, friends, and her church family.

“ To the Family of Flora:
I literally just found out right now, my former coworker plus friend passed away. My Condolences to the Family, Friends and Loved Ones. When my husband and I were in Charlotte, we sometimes visited Flora & reminisce plus catch up about our lives. She was a Very Wise Woman and a Great Mentor! If I had known Family, you know I would have been at Flora's services.
Again, my condolences to the Family and Cherish your Memories with her! ❤️ 🙏
