

Ms. Florence H. Fraction

October 31, 1936 - August 16, 2016

Florence Hannah Fraction was born on October 31, 1936, in Upstate, New York, the second of six children of Jean Fraction. At an early age, she was relocated to Bristol, TN/Bristol, VA, before permanently moving to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Though she was born to Jean Fraction, she was loved, raised and adopted by her Aunt Katherine Fraction McCain, whom she affectionately called 'MY MOTHER.' Aunt Kat, her two brothers, Lorenzo Archer, Thomas McCain, special God-given daughter, Tammy Byrd-Carelock and a great-grandson, Baby "Angel" Symere Byrd, preceded her in death.

Although educated in the Steelton-Highspire School District, Steelton, PA, during her elementary years, she graduated from William Penn High School, Harrisburg School District, Class of 1955. Upon graduation from high school, she worked as a Nurse's Aide. She left her position at a nursing home hoping to pursue her desire of becoming a RN to care for her ailing mother. She unselfishly and lovingly devoted her life to caring for her mom as well as seeing after the well-being of her two devoted brothers. Florence would later spend the rest of her days on earth LOVING, CARING FOR, SHELTERING and PROVIDING for a vast number of children inside of her home which she said she was, "chosen, called and guided by God to do." Florence was a dedicated daughter, a loving mother, a devoted aunt, and a loyal friend; yet, her all-time favorite title which she loved to be called as she beamed with pride and adoration was "Nana!!"

After accepting the call to surrender her life and love to God, in 1972 Florence joined her family's church, Rolleston Street Church of The Living God, where she remained a faithful and devoted member. She served on the Trustee Board, Pastor's Aide Committee, Adult Choir, Kitchen Staff and wherever her presence and assistance were needed; but the position was most sacred to her was being a "CHILD OF GOD!"

Florence was an avid reader, loved to cook, loved to "sow seeds" and encouragement into the life of anyone and everyone she encountered. Florence was indeed a TRUE SERVANT OF GOD, and it showed in every aspect of her life. Florence LOVED the lost and stood on 'I WILL ONLY TRUST GOD!!' which she did until she took her last breath on Tuesday, August 16, 2016, when she peacefully transitioned into eternal life with her two "besties," Pastor Norma J. Allen and Sister Ida Mae Venable by her side.

Florence leaves to cherish loving memories and emulate her legacy of determination, hope and love her birth daughters, Cathy A. Fraction and Jamie L. Fraction; given-daughter, Tina Weldon-Tucker; special and adored niece, Michelle (Jan) Walker; sister-in-law, Carrie McCain; six amazing grandchildren, Troy, Tiffany, Tiah, Britney, Tyler and Tanae; ten beautiful, amazing and truly adored great-grandchildren, Jermaine Jr., Tamiah, Amira, Xavier, Royal, Karter, Lennox and "super-stars," Kaiden and Kinley; loving God-children, Rev. Barbara Walker, Mario "Stoney" Britton, Myrna Jackson and Jamal Wells; as well as a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, church family and friends.
