“ You have been apart my life for the past 15 yrs, we had a family...I know you and Kayana would butt heads at times but she definitely loved you. The bond you shared with Kameron was one of the many things I loved about you...even though at times it felt like I had 2 sons (smiling). You came into my life for a reason, you have taught me so much about love, life, and about myself. I forgave you for the choices you made. I always told you I was proud of you, for the changes you were making. You were finally starting to see things from a different perspective. I want you to know HOME will forever be at 826. If I had known the last time we talked would have been the last, I wouldn't have been so short. If I had known the last time I saw you would've been the last, I would've held you longer. You were my 1...I'm thankful for our love and friendship. I'm sorry our time was suddenly cut so short...I feel you with me, wrapping your loving arms around me! You always said we were all you had, I carry you with me in my heart forever!! I pray your spirit can rest knowing that I love you and I was proud of the changes you were making. There's a lot I'll never have the answers to, but I know true love never dies. You had my heart and I know I'll walk away from this a million times stronger than I already was! I'll see you on the other side...MrsGibson 🍷
