

George L. Bond

July 2, 1961 - March 30, 2011

GEORGE L. BOND, son of the late Louise Bond, was born Sunday, July 2, 1961, in Chicago, Illinois, where he received his formal education.

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Wednesday, March 30, 2011, George departed this life in his forty-ninth year.

Humorously known as "007," he held numerous and varied employment positions during his lifetime. George was an avid Penn State fan who enjoyed most of the other sports as well.

In addition to his mother, George was predeceased by his grandfather and father. Surviving to share the grief of George's unexpected and sudden death are his children, Takisha Crump of Illinois,

Michael Burgess, Amanda Franklin, Chanel Jackson, Tristan L. Bond, Dion Jordan Bond and Jordan M. Bond; his grandmother, Helen Venable; uncle, Germaine Venable, all of the Harrisburg area; other relatives and friends.