

Mr. George Fleming

August 10, 1949 - October 11, 2015

“...To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die:

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;...”

Ecclesiastes #1-2

George, son of the late George Bell and Marie Fleming, was born Wednesday, August 10, 1949, in Steelton, PA. Along with his parents, he was also preceded in death by three sisters, Brenda Adams, Shirley Fleming-Washington and Constance Miller.

George was employed by the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company, PP&L. Leisurely, he enjoyed fishing, playing pool, playing cards, watching the Sci-Fi Network, avidly supporting his team, the New England Patriots and playing with the babies.

At sixty-six years of age, while a resident at the Spring Creek Rehabilitation and Health Care Center, Harrisburg, PA, on Sunday, October 11, 2015, George transitioned into eternal life.

George leaves not to mourn his passing, but to celebrate his life four siblings, Lachreatia “Chrissy” Fleming of Harrisburg, Victoria Rawls of Savannah, Georgia, Michael Fleming and Ricky Fleming, both of Harrisburg; his longtime companion, Butch Watson of Steelton; a God-child, Jermaine Banks (Pamela); as well as other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

His life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Tuesday, October 20, 2015, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing 10-11 a.m. Interment will be at William Howard Day Cemetery.
