

Ms. Glenda Diggs

May 18, 1964 - October 19, 2012

Glenda, affectionately called “DeeDee,” daughter of Verna Diggs, was born Monday, May 18, 1964, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

A graduate of Harrisburg High School, Glenda’s career path included positions with Penn National Insurance Company, Metro Teleconnected and, lastly, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Revenue, as an Examiner.

Glenda accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age being baptized at Second Baptist Church, Harrisburg.

She loved and enjoyed her children who were the “light-of-her-life.” People who knew her always commented how she kept her “hair tight.” When she smiled, her entire face beamed. Glenda enjoyed listening to gospel music, shopping, supporting her Philadelphia Eagles and, most of all, eating good food.

In Harrisburg, on Friday, October 19, 2012, Glenda was called to her Heavenly Home. She was preceded in death by her oldest brother, Harry Diggs. She leaves to celebrate her life and legacy a loving and devoted family: mother, Verna Diggs; son, Antoine Diggs; daughter, Shayla A. Diggs, all of Harrisburg; brothers, Richard Diggs (Carla) of Clearfield, PA, Bernard Diggs

(Sissy) of Jacksonville, Florida, Robert Diggs of York, PA, Kevin Diggs (Maritza) of Philadelphia, PA; one sister, Darrell Soni Hawkins (James) of Harrisburg; one grandson, Julien Dent of Steelton, PA; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Glenda's passing. Prior to my retirement, I had the opportunity to work on the same floor with Glenda for several years. She was one of the kindest and warmest people I have ever known. Glenda always had a bright smile for everyone and kind words to say even when a situation looked bleak. I know she will be greatly missed by her co-workers. Dale H. Henry, Mifflintown, PA.
