Gloria L. Williams

“For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.”

II Corinthians 5:1

Gloria L. Williams, known as “Glo” by her family and friends, was born Tuesday, March 14, 1933, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late William Wilson and the late Roberta Virginia Gray Stewart.

Glo was educated in the Harrisburg School District. She was a devoted homemaker who loved cheering others with that just-right birthday card. Glo also enjoyed watching the evolving drama of television soap operas. In her eightieth year, on Thursday, February 20, 2014, she peacefully transitioned from her earthly journey into eternal rest while surrounded by her loving family. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John Williams Sr.; sister, Mary Beasley Watson; granddaughter, Tiana Dockens; son-in-law, Jack Mosley; and a longtime friend/companion, Frederick Moore.

She leaves to celebrate her life and cherish many special memories her children, John Williams Jr. and his wife Kim of Harrisburg, Jerome K. Williams

Sr. and his wife Wanda of Harrisburg, Leslie Mosley of Houston, Texas, and Daryll Williams and his wife Joan of Harrisburg. Her memory will also be honored by her thirteen grandchildren, thirty great grandchildren, six great-great grandchildren; a loving cousin, Alice Baker; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

Her life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Thursday, February 27th, at Goodwin Memorial Baptist Church, 2447 Green Street, Harrisburg, with viewing from 10 to 11 a.m. Interment will be held at William Howard Day Cemetery.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
