

Grace Anne Wise

March 15, 1943 - August 27, 2020

“The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” Psalm 27:1

Grace Anne Wise was born Monday, March 15, 1943, in Statesville, North Carolina, the second child of the late Robert E. Chambers Sr. and Tabitha E. Tuck Chambers.

Grace transitioned from this life into eternal peace on Thursday night, August 27, 2020. Along with her parents, Grace was also preceded in death by one brother, Robert E. Chambers Jr., and two sisters, Betty J. Chambers and Bernice Chambers.

Grace retired from the Harrisburg School District with over thirty years of service. Leisurely, she enjoyed watching “Wheel of Fortune” and “Jeopardy,” tending her front and back gardens and shopping from QVC.

Loving memories of Grace’s journey will be cherished by her three daughters, Jacqueline E. Wise of Harrisburg, PA, Terri Y. Carter of Bristow, VA, Gloria J. Wise-Stump of Harrisburg; one son, James E. Wise Jr. of York, PA; one sister, Edith M. Chambers of Harrisburg; five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and a host of extended family and friends.

Lovingly Submitted by the Family of Grace A. Wise

“ To the Family of Ms. Gracie,

Although I only met her once she left a impressing memory. She was funny, warm, and down to earth. You never had to wonder about what was on her mind as she expressed herself lovingly. I know she loved her children dearly and her grandchildren with all her heart and would protect them at all cost. I am so glad I got a chance to meet her. I am so sorry for the loss of your Mother and grandmother. Mothers like these and of these values are fading but I know she lives in the hearts of those she loved and those she touched. Absent from the body, present with the Lord is where she is!
