Guillermina Almestica

Guillermina Almestica was born February 14, 1941, in Dorado, Puerto Rico. She married Benjamin Baez in 1999 in Harrisburg, PA.

Guillermina was a member of the First Bilingual Christian Church of Harrisburg for more than twenty years. She was a faithful servant and very well loved by many. She was distinguished for her smile and her delicious ice cones and food. When she began her walk with God, she always made it a priority to cook for the pastors. She wanted to make sure that the pastors had a hot meal. At an early age, she started working in the sugar cane field. She always made sure that all her children were well taken care of.

On July 28, 2016, Guillermina entered eternal rest. She is survived by her husband, Benjamin Baez, nine children, seventeen grandchildren, thirty-five great-grand-children and eleven brothers.

Her life was celebrated at 4 p.m., Sunday, July 31, 2016, at First Bilingual Christian Church of Harrisburg, 123-124 South 13th Street, Harrisburg, PA. Interment was 1 p.m., Monday, August 1, 2016, at East Harrisburg Cemetery, 2260 Herr Street, Harrisburg, PA.
