

Harvey W. Joppy

March 27, 1942 - January 22, 2013

Harvey W. Joppy

Not Ever Gone, Just Moved On!

Harvey W. Joppy, affectionately known as “Poppy-Joppy,” was born March 27, 1942, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, son of the late Robert Joppy Sr. and the late Ella Joppy.

Educated in the Harrisburg School District, he retired from the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, Maintenance Department. One of Harvey’s greatest joys in life was what he could do for others. He truly enjoyed helping others. The world would be a much better place if there were more like “Poppy-Joppy.” Of course, drinking his Pepsi, fishing and gardening were also among those things Harvey enjoyed.

In his seventieth year, at his Swatara Street, Harrisburg home, on Tuesday, January 22, 2013, Harvey completed his earthly journey. In addition to his parents, Harvey was predeceased by his wife, Snolia Harris Hymon-Stampes; two brothers, Raymond and Herman Joppy; one sister, Carolyn Susan Joppy; and a nephew, Michael Joppy. Harvey leaves to celebrate his life three sisters, Betty and Juanita Joppy, both of Harrisburg, PA, and Rochelle Pickett (McKinney) of Harrisburg, NC; three brothers, Robert Jr., James Sr. and Alphonso Joppy (Florine); his stepchildren, Carol Hymon-Huitt, James “Cheatie” Hymon Sr. (Ingrid) and Carla Hymon-Williams, all of Harrisburg; numerous step-grandchildren, great step-grandchildren, one step-great great grandchild; as well as nieces, nephews and other relatives.