

Hazel McWhite

August 21, 1939 - February 20, 2026

Hazel McWhite, son of the late Lewis McWhite and Alberta (Coachman) McWhite, was born on August 21, 1939, in Cottonwood, Alabama.

Hazel received his education from the former William Penn High School, where he proudly participated on the track team. He later built a long and dedicated career with Harrisburg Public Transportation, from which he retired after years of faithful service.

Hazel was a devoted member of Goodwin Memorial Baptist Church, where he faithfully served as a member of the Men's Choir.

On February 20, 2026, at eighty-six years of age, Hazel peacefully transitioned from time to eternity in Harrisburg. Joining in eternal rest with his beloved wife, Delores A. Payne McWhite; his daughter, Sherry A. McWhite-Yancey; his parents, Lewis and Alberta McWhite; his brother, James McWhite; his sister, Elizabeth Keniebrew; his aunt, Virgie Baldwin; and his cousin, Nathaniel McWhite.

Hazel leaves to cherish his memory his loving sons, Brian K. McWhite, Kevin L. McWhite, and Michael E. McWhite; his sisters, Annie Moore, Alma McWhite, Verdell McWhite Ganges, and Mary McWhite; his brothers, Robert McWhite and Barry McWhite; his four cherished grandchildren, Adaira J.

McNaughton, Kendale Harris, Kevin D. McWhite, and Tiara Coon; and a host of extended family members and friends who will forever treasure his love and lasting legacy.

Flower delivery, 8:30 a.m., Friday, March 13, at Goodwin Memorial Baptist Church.

“ My prayers and condolences to the family as you mourn the loss of such a wonderful man. Mr. Hazel (as I always referred to him) was a dear friend of my family's for as long as I can remember. I have a family picture that was taken at my aunt Pat's home on Seneca St. during a visit from my grandparents back in the mid 70s, and an always-smiling Mr. Hazel is right there in it. He was family.

Peaceful journey, Mr. Hazel. We enjoyed your presence, and we will miss you.

I enjoyed singing with Hazel in the former Central P Men's Community Choir. He was faithful, exuberant and always on key! As a younger man, my fondest recollection of Hazel was his lead on an album produced by the Goodwin Memorial Choir under the direction of the late Dr. Olin Harris Sr. I can still hear him crooning, "Am I a soldier of the cross, a follower of the lamb?" May he rest peacefully in the presence of our Lord! Dea Joseph Robinson, Jr.
