

Mr. Horace L. Davis

December 21, 1933 - September 23, 2014

Horace L. Davis

Horace L. Davis, 80, of Lower Paxton Twp. peacefully passed away September 23, 2014. Horace was born December 21, 1933 in Harrisburg to the late James A. Davis Sr. and Agatha V. Young Davis. Horace was educated in the Harrisburg School District and graduated from the former John Harris High School. He attended West Virginia State College and retired from the Commonwealth of PA, Dept. of Labor and Industry after 30 years of service. Horace enjoyed traveling, reading, studying diverse cultures and their languages, basketball, music, arts/crafts, sign language and family gatherings where he often acted as the griot/storyteller.

Along with his parents, Horace was predeceased by his siblings, Dorothy A. Davis Towe, James A. Davis Jr., Juanita L. Davis Dunbar and Robert L. Davis. He leaves not to mourn his passing, but to celebrate his life and cherish his memory, 2 sisters, Lorraine E. Davis Lawson and Connie M. Davis Lewis, as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

At Horace's request, a private viewing was held at Wallace Funeral Directors with private burial at William Howard Day Cemetery. The family thanks friends for their words of comfort, cards, letters, acts of kindness, caring and loving support during this difficult time. Memorial gifts may be made in Horace's name to a charity of your choice.
