

Mrs. Jacklyn L. Wright

August 17, 1965 - March 24, 2017

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

St. John 14:1-3

Jacklyn was born Tuesday, August 17, 1965, in Harrisburg, PA, daughter of the late Jack Moore and the late Alma Jordan Moore. She was affectionately known as "Jackie" by family and friends.

Jackie was a graduate of Steelton-Highspire High School, Class of 1985. She married the love-of-her-life, Curtis L. Wright. Jackie and Curtis shared twenty-seven years of marriage and were blessed with two daughters, "Little Jack" and Brittnea;` and one son, Curtis Jr.

Jackie joined Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Steelton, PA, where along with her brother she was baptized at twelve years of age. She remained steadfast in her faith throughout her entire life.

After twenty years of service, Jackie retired from the Harrisburg School District. She was a licensed cosmetologist as well. Jackie loved cheering for her Pittsburgh Steelers, doing crafts, drawing, writing poetry and spending time with family and friends, especially her grandson Isaiah.

On Friday, March 24, 2017, at the age of fifty-one, Jackie transitioned from this life into eternal life surrounded by her loving family in the peace of her home in Harrisburg, PA. She was preceded in death by her parents, Jack and Alma Moore, and her daughter, "Little Jack."

Jackie leaves precious memories to be shared and cherished by her husband, Curtis L. Wright Sr.; daughter, Brittnea` Wright (Chris); son, Curtis L. Wright Jr.; sisters, Kay Colston (Charles), Drucie Lyons, Vivian Moore; brother, Jefferson Moore (Lynda); mother-in-law, Willette Alexander; sisters-in-law, Elvetta Knox (Stephen), Denise Alexander; brother-in-law, Jesse Wright; grandson, Isaiah Glosy; other family members and friends.

“ In Loving Memofy of Jacklyn Wright. Today has been a day filled with tears, laughter and sorrow. Today all the family honored you by wearing purple your favorite color. Although your presence is no longer with us it comforts our hearts that you're with our Heavenly Father. Thank you for touching many lives as we seen today. We will forever cherish your gentle smile and embrace your warm and caring spirit. The Wright's, Lyon's and the Moore family would like to thank Wallace Funeral Home and extend a big thanks for your condolences for calls, visits, food, cards and flowers during this time of our bereavement. We give a heartfelt thank you for all family and friends who came today to help us celebrate Jacklyn's life. Be at peace my little sister and Queen.

I just learned of Jackie's passing. My deepest condolences go out to all of her family. Jackie was one of my first friends at Steel-High and we remained close throughout the high school years (Class of '85). Memories just came rushing back as I saw her picture and I truly regret we lost touch over the years. Her life was a blessing and her memory will live on in all who knew her. May she rest in peace and May God comfort those who are grieving her loss.

“ Jackie was a thoughtful and kind person in so many ways. She donated clothing and other supplies to a refugee family that arrived in Harrisburg a few months ago, which was greatly appreciated by everyone involved. Not one to broadcast her good deeds (of which there were many) she refused a receipt, even though her gift was very generous. She truly saw value in every human being. She is missed.

“ It's so hard to believe that your gone. I know that you are with dad and our Heavenly Father. I will always cherish your smile, our childhood memories, our talks and your words of encouragements. You were an awesome wife, mother, aunt and sister. Keep cheering for the Pittsburg Steelers you were a loyal fan. Black - Your now meet Jesus who died for sins of the world. Gold - You now can walk on the streets made of gold. Purple - Your favorite color which means Royalty and you were. Rest in peace my little sister and Queen. Love you and missing you, your sister Vivan!
