“Strong, hardworking - yet a quiet and calming presence. When asked to describe “Poppy” to others, that is what immediately comes to mind. Although you entered our lives at a time when none of us were necessarily in need of “parenting,” you were actually more than we probably gave you credit for. More than you knew. More than we knew. You became a loved and respected mentor to so many. Not only did we gain a “bonus” dad, but our blended family became whole with Danielle, Janelle and Giulian.

Your granddaughters, Ryan - better known by you as “Penelope” and Eliana - will miss your love of Disney movies. Your grandsons, Giulian, Greyson, and Cameron are just now discovering that they share your love of cars, trucks, motorcycles and trains. We all know that you are more than likely smoking some meat on a fancy green egg grill with fireworks in the background right now. And although we didn’t all agree on your choice of NFL sports teams, we could all shout at the TV screen together in unison. But one thing is for certain, our mom, Karen, loved you endlessly and you made her happier than you ever gave yourself credit for.

We will plan to fulfill your dream of sharing in a deep sea fishing trip with the entire family one day. I have no doubt that your presence will be felt and I’m sure that the grandkids will catch WAY more fish than the adults. We love you. We miss you.

“When the roots are deep, there is not reason to fear the wind.” - African Proverb

Family is everything. Find your tribe and love them hard. Cheers Poppy.

Love always, Kathina

“ My lasting memory of you Jaime is the time you and Todd came to my home on your motor cycles for a BBQ. We had so much fun that day. Then watching you fellas heading home on your bikes before dusk. And, thought I was the Eagles #1 fan, but cuz you had me beat. RIHP cousin. Loved you much!
