

Mr. James Lester Campbell Jr.

October 15, 1945 - June 28, 2019

James Lester Campbell Jr., son of the late James L. Campbell Sr. and Doris Mae Campbell, was born on Wednesday, October 15, 1945, in Harrisburg, PA. James, known better as “Jimmy” by family and friends, graduated from the Middletown Area High School, served honorably in the United States Army and retired from the New Cumberland Army Depot. A lover of the outdoors, Jimmy enjoyed fishing, hunting, jazz and, most of all, football, – “Fly Eagles Fly.”

On Friday, June 28, 2019, at the young age of seventy-three, Jimmy transitioned from this life to join his father, mother, beloved sister, Virginia Mae Payton; grandson, Kody Flanagan; and his Grand Puppy Braxton in the heavens above. Sharing in the sorrow of Jim’s passing from labor to reward are his six children, Keith Campbell, Joann Romain, Christine Wooding, Janine Flanagan, Marc Campbell and Jason Campbell; his brother, Todd Campbell; and his sisters, Judy Alfaro and Pat Bass. Jimmy is also represented by a host of loving nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

You will be missed as Dad, Brother, Brother-in-law, Son-in-law, Nephew, Uncle, Pop and Pop-Pop.

We submit to you our everlasting love – Your Family

“ To my Brother and our Uncle. Words cannot describe the pain that we are feeling. You will surely be missed, but our memories of you, we will cherish all the days of our lives. I will remember our phone calls about the Patriots winning the Superbowl and "you were tired of them winning" 😍 LOL, and the kids talking about our Fish Fry. May you Rest In Peace and know that you will always have a place in our hearts.
Love You Always,
Pat, Brandon & Brittany

Condolences to Jimmy's family and friends. Although we didn't see each other often due to physical distance, we remained close through the special memories shared as cousins. My brother Donald was close in age with Virginia Mae and I was a year older than Jimmy. My dad, Raymond and your mother Doris were cousins and daddy made sure we remained close as family. May you Rest In Peace and May we all be together again as we Rise in Glory! Lovingly, Alice

Donald and I are grateful that we were able to share in the beautiful Homegoing Service, as we sorrowfully said farewell to our cousin Jimmy. Although the Sunset of time is part of life, may we have peace knowing that we will be together again, with the Lord, in the Glory of Eternal Life. Lovingly, Alice
