

Mr. James E. Clark

February 4, 1946 - December 23, 2017

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

John 3:16

James E. Clark, son of the late James Clark and the late Mandy Clark, was born Monday, February 4, 1946, in Dothan, Alabama, where he received his formal education.

James was a member of At the Cross Church of God In Christ, Harrisburg, PA, where he made himself available whenever and wherever he was needed. He loved God, his family and his church. A hardworking, quiet man and a good father, James loved his family unconditionally. He retired from the New Cumberland Army Depot after twenty-eight years of service, and he especially enjoyed outside yard work.

In his seventy-first year, while at his home in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Saturday, December 23, 2017, James exchanged mortality for immortality joining in eternal life his parents, his wife, Prudence Wright Clark, and his eleven siblings.

Loving and irreplaceable memories will be cherished by his son, Donnie Clark and his wife Letitia; his daughter, Melissa Clark; his three grandchildren,

Taylor Clark, Donnie Clark Jr. and Morgan Clark, all of Harrisburg, PA; as well as other family members and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
