

James Arthur Joy

November 23, 1938 - July 8, 2021

James Arthur Joy, son of Commodore Joy and Essic Lee Joy, was born Wednesday, November 23, 1938, in Taylor, MS.

He attended Taylor Mississippi High School and was formerly employed by Jones' Corner, Steelton, PA, and Cloverly Heights, Harrisburg, PA.

James spent many enjoyable hours playing bingo, cooking, going to the casino and, most importantly, spending time with his family. He was a sports enthusiast who avidly supported the Washington Redskins.

On Thursday, July 8, 2021, at eighty-two years of age, James departed this life joining in eternal life his parents and his wife, Blondie T. Joy.

James leaves to cherish many special memories his son, Bruce Morgan of Parksville, MS; daughter, Callie Brassell of Oxford, MS; stepdaughters, Carlette Hill, Sharlette Hill, Michael Hill and Robin Freeman, all of Harrisburg, PA; grandchildren, Nascere Beasley, Mirracle Hill-Beasley, Akiem Britton Jr., Ny`Jai Roy, Yoseph Neal and Ermias Robison, all of Harrisburg, PA; sisters, Lula G. Pratcher of Memphis, TN, and Nina Hervey of Oxford, MS; as well as other family members and friends.

“ From Charles Murphy to the family my condolences! I met James back during the late 80's when he started at O.Ds. We shared many laughs over my cowboys and his Redskins. & his Celtics and my 76ers. Wow great memories. I have been blessed by getting to know a good and gracious man, James A. Joy. May you rest in peace my friend. How about them cowgirls James woud say. LOL
