

James Mays Jr.

November 20, 1966 - September 13, 2023

James Mays Jr., son of the late James Mays Sr. and the late Joanne Louise (Clark) Mays, began his journey on Sunday, November 20, 1966, in Harrisburg, PA.

James attended Harrisburg High School and Lincoln University. He was a licensed Barber/Teacher and Master Barber and was employed by Rich Valley Golf Course in Carlisle, PA. James was known for his keen sense of humor especially while playing the dozens. He devoted his time to watching football avidly supporting his 49'ers, playing poker, listening to good music, dancing and, dare we leave out, dressing-to-impress. James was united in Christian fellowship with Christian Life Center Church of the Living God and a gift of life member.

In Harrisburg, on Wednesday, September 13, 2023, at fifty-six years of age, James transitioned from time to eternity joining his parents; his son, Rhahim K. Neely; and his brother, Harold Mays.

James leaves not only to mourn his departure, but to celebrate his life his special friend, Stacey Myers; his children, James Pierre Mays Jr., Alanna Lynn Mays and William Pierce; his four grandchildren, Tahja Cousins, Jaeonie Cousins, James Cousins Jr. and Justin Jackson; two sisters, Rhonda Green (Jimmy) and Joyce Mays; his beloved nephews, Tory Andrew Clark, Jesse D.

Pitt Jr. and Kyle Green; one great-grandchild; as well as aunts, uncles and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, other family members and friends who deeply loved James.
