Janet Marie Goode of Cookstown, New Jersey, and a resident of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, for over forty years, was born on Sunday, May 6, 1934, to the late Roscoe Forman and Hilda Forman.

Janet was a graduate of Pemberton High School-Class of 1952, and she was also a graduate of Harrisburg Area Community College (HACC) in 1991 with an Associate's Degree in Marketing Management Retail.

Janet was Secretary for the Provost Marshall where she met her husband Johnnie at Fort Dix, New Jersey. Janet and Johnnie fell in love, married and remained married for forty years. Janet also worked for the United States Government for over thirty years retiring at the age of sixty-five.

Janet united in Christian fellowship with Turner Memorial Missionary Baptist Church and faithfully served with the Hospitality, Heart-to-Heart, Mother's and Missionary Ministries. She was fulfilled doing the Lord's work. Reading her

Bible, going to church, doing crafts, crocheting, sewing and conversing on the telephone with family and friends were among those things she truly enjoyed, and she always dressed with elegance, sophistication and never wore the same outfit twice!
