

Jean E. Yates

January 14, 1928 - May 7, 2012

Jean E. Yates, daughter of the late Arry U. Wise and the late Della M. Stevenson Wise, was born Saturday, January 14, 1928, in Steelton, Pennsylvania.

She received her formal education in the Steelton School District where she graduated from the old Steelton High School. She was employed by and retired from the New Cumberland Army Depot. As a confession of her Christian faith, she was united in fellowship with Trinity Church of God.

Jean was a dedicated and faithful member of Unity Temple #61. Among those things she enjoyed were family reunions and visiting Hollywood Casino and the Atlantic City Casinos.

The widow of Theodore Yates, she was also predeceased by one niece, Joyce E. Wise Early; and two great nephews, Charles Merritt Jr. and Rick Wise.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Monday, May 7, 2012, in her eighty-fourth year, Mrs. Jean E. Yates passed from the labors of her earthly journey to the reward of everlasting life. Cherishing her legacy of commitment, love and faithfulness are one niece, Natalie Washington; one nephew, Tyrone Smith; three great nephews, Joe Washington, Dane Merritt, Wendell Wise; two great nieces,

Natalie Washington, Dagmar Washington, all of Harrisburg; and a host of other relatives in Virginia, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Cemetery Details

William Howard Day Cemetery

Lincoln and Carlisle Streets
Steelton, PA 17113