

Jeanette Cooper

August 29, 1923 - November 16, 2012

Jeanette Cooper, daughter of the late Samuel L. Moore and the late Azalee Campbell Moore, was born Wednesday, August 29, 1923, in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

She retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg State Hospital, and was a member of Wesley Union A.M.E. Zion Church.

At the blessed age of eighty-nine, while at the Colonial Park Care Center, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Friday, November 16, 2012, Jeanette transitioned from an earthly journey of labor to her reward of eternal life.

The widow of Robert Cooper, she leaves to cherish special memories two daughters, Rhonda Nelson and her husband Gerald, Donna Mack and husband Jeff; five grandsons, Anthony Cooper, Andre Cooper, Lamar Gibson, Courtney Mack and Jeffrey Mack Jr., all of Harrisburg; ten great grandchildren; other relatives and friends.

Lovingly and Respectfully Submitted, The Family

Cemetery Details

East Harrisburg Cemetery

2260 Herr Street
Harrisburg, PA

Tribute Wall

DS

“ I enjoyed every second of taking care of Ms Jeanette. She touched my heart and will be missed very much. God Blessed you and me for having you in my life. ”

---

Debi Spyker - November 28, 2012 at 06:25 PM

DS

“ Debi Spyker lit a candle in memory of Jeanette Cooper ”

---

Debi Spyker - November 28, 2012 at 06:19 PM