He Maketh No Mistake

My Father's way may twist and turn, my heart may throb and ache,
But in my soul I'm glad I know, He maketh no mistake.

Though night be dark and it may seem that day will never break,
I'll pin my faith, my all in Him, He maketh no mistake.

There's so much now I cannot see, my eyesight's far too dim;
But come what may, I'll simply trust and leave it all to Him.

For by and by the mist will lift and plain it all He'll make.

Through all the way, though dark to me,
He made not one mistake.

Mr. Singleton's life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Wednesday, September 11th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing from 10 AM to 12 Noon and interment at William Howard Day Cemetery.

“ Dear Jeff & Your Entire Family:

I pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey through grief. I am sending you thoughts of comfort. May knowing you're in the hearts and thoughts of others help you and yours through this time of sorrow. The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories (just like your dad). We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared his love.

May blessings of love be upon you, May its peace abides with you, May its essence illuminate your heart, Now and Forever More....

\*As you danced in the light of joy, love lifted you. As you brushed against this world so gently, you lifted us.***

*With Heartfelt Condolences,
Robin Green-Footman*
