

Jennifer Lene Lewis

January 11, 1964 - April 4, 2026

Jennifer Lene Lewis, daughter of Naomi Lewis Harris and the late James Messer, was born on January 11, 1964, in Meridian, Mississippi.

Jennifer was a graduate of John Harris High School in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She later attended Benedict College. Following her education, she served her country by enlisting in the United States Army, where she served from 1985 to 2005, including during the Gulf War.

Jennifer was a woman of unwavering faith and a devoted member of Greater Zion Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Trey DuPont. During her time there, she served faithfully in Vacation Bible School, the Missionary Ministry, the Nursery, and Building Maintenance.

In her leisure, Jennifer enjoyed reading and spending time with her family and friends. She valued those close to her and cherished the moments they shared together.

On Saturday, April 4, 2026, Jennifer transitioned from time to eternity in Harrisburg, PA, at sixty-two years of age. In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by her brother, Patrick Messer.

She leaves endless love and precious memories to her mother, Naomi Harris; her children, Tory Lewis and Dominique Lewis Sr.; her grandchildren, Dominique Lewis Jr., Liliana Lewis, Ezra Lewis, Dominic Rivera, Caleb Capellan-Ofarril, and Meilani Livingston; her brothers, Brady Messer, Donald Harris, Gregory Jones, and Anthony Jones; her sisters, Rosalyn Butts, Ruthie Jones, Gloria Johnson, Aquanetta Lowry, and Robin Hunter; along with a host of extended family members, church family, and friends.

“ My condolences to Jennifer’s family and friends. Keeping everyone in my thoughts and prayers, Jennifer and I grew up together. She was kind, wise and had a heart of gold. I remembered when we signed up for cleaning the church foyer. We cleaned it up the old school way. We did not let our health limitations get in our way. We laughed and giggled about growing up.

Rest In Heavenly Peace Jennifer
