

Mr. Joe Wheeler Lomax Jr.

January 21, 1957 - September 27, 2016

Joe was born Saturday, January 21, 1957, in Honolulu, Hawaii, son of Joe Sr. and Mattie Mae Lomax.

Joe received his education in the Harrisburg School District, Harrisburg, PA, and pursued higher learning at Thiel College, Greenville, PA. Thereafter, he returned home to work with his father. On September 30, 2000, he married the love of his life, Pamela Porter, and then moved south. Joe worked for Michael and Sons in Raleigh, NC, as a Master Plumber. He enjoyed playing the saxophone while with the Century Twenty-One Band in Harrisburg, playing spades with his family, and with his keen sense of humor, he loved making people laugh. He also LOVED the Pittsburgh Steelers—(thinking he was on the field as their coach).

In Raleigh, on Tuesday, September 27, 2016, while at work doing what he loved to do, the Lord called Joe home. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joe W. Lomax Sr. and Mattie Mae Howard Lomax; two sisters, Rosalyn Swain and Gwendolyn Lomax; and one brother, Michael Lomax.

Joe leaves to cherish loving memories his devoted wife, Pamela Porter Lomax of Raleigh; his mother-in-law, Marjorie Porter of Harrisburg; his stepmother, Gloria Lomax of Harrisburg; four sons, Jason Lomax (Shannon) of Winston Salem, NC, Jeremy Lomax of Harrisburg, Jerome Myers of Temple Hill, Maryland, Brandon Porter (Sekayi) of Philadelphia, PA; one daughter, Lakiya Porter (Bobby) of Harrisburg; two sisters, Vada Conant (David) of Bala Cynwyd, PA, and Cynthia J. Gammel of Virginia; two brothers-in-law, Curtis

Wright (Renda) and James Clark of Harrisburg; three sisters-in-law, Della Lomax of Las Vegas, NV, Muriel Wright (William) of Harrisburg, and Catherine Moses (Curtis) of Darlington, SC. Joe's life will also be honored and forever remembered by his special friends, Keith and DiTeasha Warren of Harrisburg, eleven grandchildren, one godchild and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Lovingly Submitted by Joe's Family

Flowers may be delivered to First Zion Baptist Church, 1500 Edgemont Road, Harrisburg, Saturday, 10/8, 9-9:30 a.m.
