

John Willie Bowman

April 28, 1947 - October 27, 2011

The Obituary

John Willie Bowman

“At death, God’s people don’t say “Goodbye,” but “We’ll see you later.”

John Willie Bowman, son of the late Edward and Carrie Addison Bowman, was born April 28, 1947, in Sylvania, Georgia, where he received his formal education and graduated from the Sylvania School System.

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, October 27, 2011, in his sixty-fourth year, he completed his earthly journey entering his eternal journey.

Upon pursuing a career, John earned a barbering license at the Hudson School of Barbering.

Remembering and sharing memories of John’s earthly journey of good times and even some challenging times are his daughter, Carrie Bowman of Middletown, Pennsylvania; five sisters, Bessie M. Wright of Atlanta, Georgia, Daisy Bowman of Harrisburg, Rebecca Bowman of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Elizabeth Hickson of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and Doeva Watts of Harrisburg; two granddaughters, Oveil Dykes, Alayshia Bowman; one grandson, Marcus Garner Jr., all of Middletown; longtime companion, Susie Holton; other family members and friends.

Submitted with the Blessed Assurance of John's Eternal Life,
The Family

We did not lose the one we loved, he only left before us.
Where there is everlasting life, where sorrow is no more.
There the soul will always live and peace is everywhere;
we did not lose our beloved John Willie Bowman;
God took him in His Care.