

Mr. John H. Daniels Jr.

April 28, 1928 - March 10, 2018

John H. Daniels Jr., was born Saturday, April 28, 1928, in Harrisburg, PA, son of the late John H. Daniels Sr. and the late Martina Williams Daniels.

Known as “Husky” by family and friends, John served honorably in the United States Army during the Korean War. His employment path included the United States Army, Bethlehem Steel Company, Red Crown Bowling Alley and retirement from the Harrisburg School District.

John was a loving man and generous man. He enjoyed giving the neighborhood kids money and candy, and he had a special way of calling his grands when passing out money. Among his best times were chewing his tobacco, watching westerns and sitting on “the wall” at Jefferson and Maclay Streets.

At eighty-nine years of age, John departed this life on Saturday, March 10, 2018, at his Harrisburg home with his devoted granddaughter, Lateisha Carter by his side. Not only was he preceded in death by his parents, but also one grandson, Lawrence Daniels; three brothers, Dotch Grisby, Raymond Taylor, Robert Daniels; and two sisters, Bertha Taylor and Barbara Smith.

He leaves to cherish and honor his legacy his wife, Rebecca Daniels; one daughter Karen Daniels; one son, John Daniels; granddaughter and caregiver, Lateisha Carter (Thomas); grandchildren, Keisean and Shakur Neely; special nephews who were there whenever needed, Warren Taylor, William Daniels, Martin Taylor, Dwight Taylor; eight grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; best friends, Rose Adams, Ellis Eiland; other relatives and friends.

“ I am going to miss him watching his tv shows and chewing his tobacco when I will come over to the house and seeing him seating in his chair with his cane on the side of him. 🙄
