

John Alfred Scott

April 4, 1976 - November 14, 2025

John Alfred Scott, son of Patricia Ann Irvin and the late Junior Balkcom, was born on Sunday, April 4, 1976, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

John grew up in Harrisburg and graduated from John Harris High School. Known for his strength and gentle nature, he carried himself humbly, but his warmth and sincerity left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered. People remember his loyal and steady personality, along with his subtle humor that could light up any room. His distinctive style and love for life influenced how he navigated the world.

An avid Dallas Cowboys fan, John supported his team with great pride. Whether watching a game or wearing his Cowboys gear, he enjoyed every moment of cheering them on. Among the many joys in his life, none meant more to him than caring for baby Gracie. She became the light of his world, and the love he had for her reflected the depth of his kindness and devotion.

On Friday, November 14, 2025, at the age of forty-nine, John peacefully transitioned into eternal rest. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his aunt, Gladys Finnie, and his uncle, Bill Finney, who played a special role in helping raise him.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his loving mother, Patricia Ann Irvin; his uncle, Richard Jerome Scott; his grandmother, Cora Lee McCants William; his brother, Junior Granison; his sisters, Sabrina Scott, Tanisha Manning, and Cashmere Irvin; and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

“ John is one of the nicest, smartest, human being I've ever met. I knew John for 15 years. We never had an argument ever. Everyone liked John. He is one of the few people that you can't even say anything bad about him. Everyone that met John left as a better person. He always had good things to say about everybody. He never talked about anyone behind their back or anything. I will really miss him. This is heartbreaking. Only the good die young. R.I.P. John. He may be going, but he will never be forgotten.

“ I was John's Security Operations Supervisor at Harrisburg Hospital. John worked as a valet. John always treated his customers with respect and care. John was a very hard worker and represented the system very well. I am so sorry to hear about John's passing. Praying that God will embrace his family during this difficult time.

“ May you rest in peace cuz, I know your in heaven with your father. Only the man above can answer the questions we have as a family but I know for certain that everything will be taken care of through him. Gram wants you to know that she misses your voice with the special conversation you and her shared. I love you, may your soul be at peace
