

John H. Snow Jr.

April 1, 1956 - July 15, 2023

John H. Snow Jr., son of the late John H. Snow Sr. and the late Anna Mae (Robinson) Snow, was born Sunday, April 1, 1956, in Harrisburg, PA.

A graduate of Harrisburg High School, Class of 1974, John, thereafter, served honorably in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. Until his retirement, John was a well-known Journeyman Painter for over thirty years. His painting skills and expertise always culminated in a work-of-art finished product.

John was an incredible person. He cared and loved everyone in his pathway of life. He was devoted to supporting senior citizens and lifelong friends. He was a caregiver continuously providing needed support to lifelong friends and senior citizens by spending time visiting nursing homes and their private residences.

John enjoyed great conversation and laughter with whomever he met or knew. He was complete when he could make a person smile. Jazz concerts, professional sports (basketball, football and boxing), traveling, watching television, especially his favorite programs, "Leave It to Beaver," "Stephen A's World" (ESPN sports commentator), soap operas and westerns, were among John's enjoyable pastimes. However, and foremost, he loved to cook and eat.

On Saturday, July 15, 2023, at sixty-seven years of age, John H. Snow Jr. transitioned from time to eternity joining his parents, John H. Sr. and Anna Mae Snow; sister, Patricia Grant; uncle, James Robinson; and grandparents, Helen (Robinson) Venable and George Venable.

John leaves irreplaceable memories and his love to his devoted significant other, Arlene D. Burno; his sisters, Jacqueline Summers, Deborah Ann Howard (Henry), Danette Snow and April Snow; brothers, George Snow and Carl Snow; uncles, Carl Robinson and Germayne Venable; aunts, Esther Robinson and Frances Robinson; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

John was such a blessing to everyone, and he was loved by so many!

My deepest condolences to Arlene and his family. I was at his birthday celebration after catching up with him. He was a good friend of my brother Stanley and also knew my brother Robert as a fellow painter. Such a nice guy from back in the day. He will be missed. Praying going up.
