“ As a companion of my mother’s for 15 years, I had the pleasure of meeting Jorge. A man with a big heart, always so joyful and willing to entertain anyone who surrounded him was able to feel that happiness he carried. My heart is heavy today because the news came unexpectedly. But I know that the gates of heaven are rejoicing for his arrival. A good man, who stepped up to the plate during times when I needed it the most. I was not absent a father but was equally important in my life and I am grateful to have lived to know him. I am glad to say, my daughters had a good upbringing through his involvement because as we all know it takes a village. May Jorge’s soul rest in peace and my condolences to Doug and rest of the family.

Respectfully, Elena Pagan
