My sweet, dearest lil'cousin Joey, (deep sigh) there are no words that will fill the void of your tender heart and joyful spirit, but we will do our best to honor the memory of your beautiful soul...in kindness, laughter, love and light toward each other as family & friends,til we meet again.

Rest in Peace lil'cousin.

Love you xo

Step brother,

You've been on my mind a lot more lately, i can't help but to think you are up there with our papi. How jealous I am of that. I know we grew up on different sides of the world, but that never stopped me from seeing you boys as my brothers. I have the fondest memories of you and justo coming to tampa when you were younger, my mom and papi always made sure you guys were part of the family. I love you Big Joey and I am so sorry that your life here on earth was cut short. Life makes no sense sometimes. My little one wheres your cologne and says, I want to wear Big Joey's cologne💕 You are never forgotten. Alright Big Bro, enjoy yourself up there. Please tell papi his princess loves him so much. Til we meet again... I love you. - Lil sis, Lucy. Xo
