“ David & I send our condolences to the family. Please know how much my cousin Joe meant to me. I know he is in better hands and suffering no more for him. I know there will be some difficult days ahead but please know that we serve a God who sit high and look low. Depend and continue to lean on God as he will always be your comforter. You have a great support system who will be there for you. Never walk alone, I am here for you please reach out. Love and Blessings.
