“ To the Cox family. Josephine was such a nice person. We were neighbor for a couple of years and we had a blast every day. We would sit on our porch in the late evening and laugh and talk for hours. Josephine will be missed. Thanks for sharing her with me. Take care and God bless.

“ I remember the crew (Josephine, Lindagail, Costella, Lillie Mae) did the Supremes. She will be missed. South 4th Street was the place and we had fun, especially when my Grandmom had the street dances. Hold onto the memories family because she is fine. Keep her legacy going. Love you and praying for you.
