“ Hi Family, I recall meeting Joyce back in 1997 at East Shore Community Church in Kline Plaza, we became fast friends along with her sister Janet. We found many events to fellowship at Joyce's house and at my house and other. We would prepare our favorite dishes and stay up after New Year's eve after church and go home when the sun came up. Also its because we didn't see that well at night. Joyce was a great cook and she loved to laugh. I can see that look and that laugh now. You have lost a lovely mother, grand and great grand mother. You have been fortunate to receive the love she had to give each of you. It will take a while to stop crying, but joy will come every time you remember her when you talk about how much she loved each of you
