

Juan S. Bradshaw

November 3, 1972 - June 30, 2024

Juan S. Bradshaw, son of Shirley Folkes and the late John R. Bradshaw, was born Friday, November 3, 1972, in Harrisburg, PA.

Juan received his formal education in the Harrisburg School District where he started developing his skills in the trade of welding and graduated from the William Penn Vocational School before eventually becoming certified.

Juan was employed by Feeser's Food as a Forklift Driver. He was a self-taught barber who cut hair in his neighborhood for family and friends. Juan enjoyed repairing and racing his gas and electronic race cars and introducing them to his children. Additionally, he was an enthusiastic chess player, loved science, studying philosophy, playing PlayStation, cooking, fixing things and avidly supporting his Pittsburgh Steelers. In his earlier years, he enjoyed drawing and was an accomplished tattoo artist. Foremost, Juan loved his children, grandchildren and spending time with his family. These positive attributes earned him the Greater Dad's Certificate for helping individuals succeed.

While at his Harrisburg residence on Sunday, June 30, 2024, Juan S. Bradshaw departed this life at fifty-one years of age.

Juan leaves broken hearts and his love to his mother, Shirley Folkes; daughters, Alicia Bradshaw, Kayla Bradshaw and Sha`Kyra Anderson; stepson, Deon Pitts; ex-wife, Juanita Bradshaw; grandmother, Joan Pullen; grandchildren, Ja`sir Coble, Angelena Rodriguez and De`Angelo Pitts; along with other family members and friends.
